Mailing List Breakdown:

Members list:
All members of WAPA are on this list which is intended for use as a members forum for technical discussions (or posting technical queries), raising general issues and sharing information.

Coverage List:
All members (who indicated they would like to be on this list) receive the coverage requests queries coming in from the website from potential clients looking for a provider, or for members to request assistance in this regard from each other.

Announce List:
Important WAPA notifications, advisories, requests and news from WAPA will be sent to members via this list.

WAPA-Offers List:
This list is for members to post any mails of a commercial nature, eg. discounts, offers, sales, adverts, etc. Members use this list at their discretion.
It is also used for forwarding offers from external service providers, as well as notifying members of conferences/events endorsed by WAPA.